A Literary Festival

BookFest!

of the Palm Beaches

WELCOME

Welcome to BookFest! of the Palm Beaches, a new kind of festival for Palm Beach County. It began in November, 1989, when members of the Palm Beach County Library Association visited the Miami Book Fair and decided that we needed a book fair too, right here — not 65 miles away.

The word spread from librarians to book dealers, authors, and teachers. The Palm Beach Post became our "Grand Sponsor," but this title is inadequate to convey the enthusiasm and leadership that Post staff members brought to the project. The Post's Community Relations Director Gale Howden suggested a kick-off breakfast, which helped us reach accountants, musicians, bankers, restaurateurs, engineers, and many community organizations. These people and clubs share our goal: to celebrate libraries, reading, and especially literacy.

In the future we hope BookFest will be a major fund-raiser for the Literacy Coalition. Thanks to everyone who donated time and talent, and thanks especially for your faith in the future of BookFest.

Special thanks to the Village of Palm Springs for providing moral and financial support, and for giving BookFest a home base. Palm Springs residents, staff, elected officials, and community organizations have worked together on this project.

Thanks, also, to the Palm Beach County Library System for housing many BookFest functions; producing flyers, posters, and graphics; and for donating staff time and talent.

Thank you for coming to BookFest! of the Palm Beaches — Read, Succeed, Celebrate, and help us spread the word!

FEATURED AUTHORS

Be sure to check the schedule on pages 10 and 11 so you don't miss your favorite authors.

John Albershardt

Mr. Albershardt is a former fighter pilot and instructor in the Air Force. He made and lost a fortune before he was 30, built it back by 40, and retired at 50 controlling a conglomerate operating in five states with over 600 employees. His novel, The Provo Affair, about high finance and drugs, is set in the Bahamas.

Chevy Alden

Chevy Alden's adventure novel Black Falcon was recommended by Cruising World magazine and later praised by President George Bush. This story of an aerial drug operation in the Florida Keys is told from the pilot's point of view. A sequel is in the works: Death Wreath. Mr. Alden has also written Down Syndrome in the 1980's: Expect the Most. This story tells of the author's daughter, who has Down's Syndrome.

Valerie Allen

Ms. Allen, author of The Night Thief, is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and the Southwest Writers Workshop. She has written for magazines such as Albuquerque Living Magazine and Adobe News.

Adelaide Altman

Children at BookFest will enjoy author-illustrator Adelaide Altman, also known as Professor Pishposh. In her red wig, pink tunic, and huge, black-rimmed glasses, the Professor tells what happened when she cloned her robot Rooby. This story is recounted in Professor Pishposh and the Robots. Ms. Altman was recently appointed interior design editor for The Palm Beach Daily News.

Brian Batchelder

Author of New Horizons in Bonsai, Mr. Batchelder is also the writer and host of a new Public Broadcasting Service television series by the same name. He describes his personal method of bonsai as "the first new method in the 2,000 year history of the art."

Christine Bell

Ms. Bell has written Saint and The Perez Family. The Perez Family, a novel about a Cuban immigrant family, is set in Miami, where Ms. Bell lives and works. The novel was recently named a Notable Book by the American Library Association. Her appearance is sponsored by the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System.

Stephen Birmingham

Stephen Birmingham writes both fiction and non-fiction best-sellers. His novels include Those Harper Women, The Auerbach Will, and Shades of Fortune. His non-fiction "social histories" include Our Crowd: The Great Jewish Families of New York and Real Lace: America's Irish Rich. Mr. Birmingham's latest novel is The Rothman Scandal.

Ben Bova

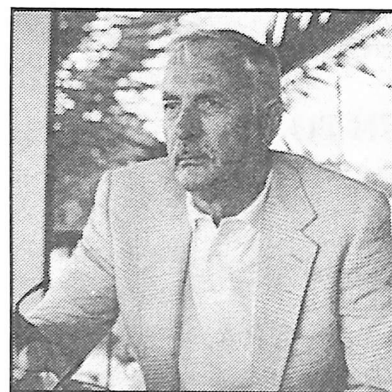

Ben Bova is the award-winning author of more than 75 futuristic novels and non-fiction books about space and technology. He is President of the Science Fiction Writers of America and Chairman of the Board of the National Space Society. Mr. Bova is a frequent commentator on radio and television, a popular lecturer, and an executive in the aerospace industry. He was editorial director of Omni magazine and editor of Analog magazine, winning the prestigious "Hugo" (Science Fiction Achievement Award) six times for Best Professional Editor.

Drollene Brown

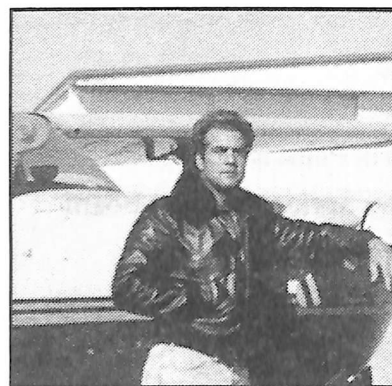

Ms. Brown has written two children's biographies. Sybil Rides for Independence tells the story of a Revolutionary War heroine. Belva Lockwood Wins Her Case reports on a turn-of-the-century feminist lawyer. With author Abe Goldman, Ms. Brown has ghostwritten a new book, Holding on to Ettie. This book, for adults, tells the story of a husband's fight to wrest his wife from the clutches of Alzheimer's disease.

Angelica Carpenter and Jean Shirley

Angelica Carpenter (BookFest Executive Director) and her mother, Jean Shirley, are co-authors of a biography for young people, Frances Hodgson Burnett: Beyond the Secret Garden. Frances Hodgson Burnett is remembered today for The Secret Garden, Little Lord Fauntleroy, and A Little Princess. Jean Shirley is Florida regional advisor for the Society of Children's Book Writers. The co-authors' next book is L. Frank Baum: Royal Historian of Oz, also for young people.

Beverly Coyle

Sydney Ann Clary

Sydney Clary was named Best All Around Series Author by Romantic Times magazine in 1989 and was a Gold Medallion finalist in 1988. Ms. Clary also writes under the name Sara Chance. Her 22 books have been sold in 100 countries and translated into 21 languages.

Beverly Coyle

Ms. Coyle is a fifth-generation Floridian and daughter of a Methodist minister. Her novel The Kneeling Bus is a story of family life, inspired by a true incident, when Ms. Coyle's father baptized a woman in the Atlantic Ocean. It is set in the 1950s, partly in Boynton Beach. The author teaches English at Vassar and has written two books about poet Wallace Stevens. The Kneeling Bus is her first novel.

Sue Dauphin

Ms. Dauphin is a writer, producer, and playwright. Her book Sjogren's Syndrome: The Sneaky "Arthritis" has been translated into Japanese and is being made into a video. Her script for the documentary Beyond Apothecary: The Pharmacist in Today's Hospital won an award from the Florida Motion Picture and Television Association in 1990.

Gwen Davis

Novelist Gwen Davis is known for her best-selling tales of glamour and romance, such as Silk Lady, The Pretenders, and Ladies in Waiting. Her latest book, Jade, is set against the backdrop of exotic, modern-day Hong Kong, and will be published this spring by Warner Books.

Carlo DiNapoli

Mr. DiNapoli's book for children is Winged Whale of Woefully. With his wife, Renee C. DiNapoli, he has written How to Own a Boat and Not Spend Any Money.

Alison Drake

See Trish Janeshutz.

Scott Eyman

Mr. Eyman's biography, Mary Pickford: America's Sweetheart, describes the life and times of one of America's favorite screen personalities. His previous book, Five American Cinematographers, features introductions, complete filmographies, and rare stills from five of the cinema's greatest cameramen. Mr. Eyman is entertainment writer for the Palm Beach Post.

Steve Glassman

Mr. Glassman is Associate Professor of Humanities at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University in Daytona Beach. He is the author of Blood on the Moon: A Novel of Old Florida. He is co-editor, with Katherine Lee Seidel, of Zora in Florida, a collection of essays on Zora Neale Hurston due to be published this spring by the University of Central Florida Press.

Alvin Granowsky

Dr. Alvin Granowsky, a national expert on reading, urges educators to use both phonics and whole language methods. A prolific author, Granowsky has published instructional materials on reading and writing skills, vocabulary building, and phonics.

Wayne Grover

Mr. Grover's Dolphin Adventure: A True Story is the result of an experience he had while diving. An active conservationist, scuba diver, white-water rafter, hiker, and naturalist, Mr. Grover is a freelance journalist who has lived on four continents. Mr. Grover's new book is Ali and the Golden Eagle.

Trish Janeshutz

Ms. Janeshutz, author of In Shadow, has also published mysteries under the pseudonyms Alison Drake and T.J. MacGregor. Her books include Tango Key, Black Moon, Kill Flash, On Ice, and Lagoon. A Canadian film company has optioned Tango Key.

Sharon Komlos

Sharon Patyk Komlos is a crime victim advocate and author. Her book, Feel the Laughter, is, in Ms. Komlos' words, about "hope, overcoming, feeling life—the energy, the laughter, the emotion." In 1980, Ms. Komlos feeling life—the energy, the laughter, the emotion." In 1980, Ms. Komlos was blinded, raped, stabbed, and left for dead. Her valiant survival has been documented by 20/20, and she has received numerous national, local, and state awards.

Robert Lacey

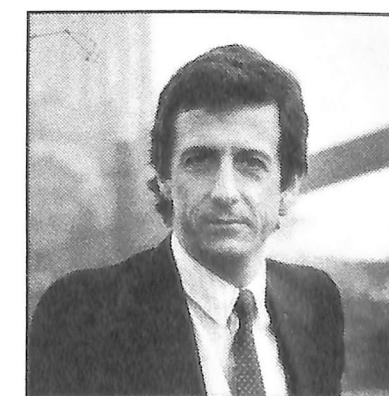

Mr. Lacey is a best-selling British author and biographer who has written about historical and contemporary English royalty, the ruling family of Saudi Arabia, and the Fords of Detroit. Moving from the aristocracy to the underworld, Mr. Lacey's new book in progress is Little Man: Meyer Lansky and the Gangster Life. His other titles include Majesty, Princess, Aristocrats, Queen Mother, The Kingdom, and Ford, the Men and the Machine.

Robert Lacey

Lucia St. Clair Robson

Michael Lasalandra

Mr. Lasalandra is a veteran reporter who has worked for the Boston Herald, The Miami News, and The Palm Beach Post. He lives in West Palm Beach. He and co-author Mark Merenda wrote Satan's Harvest, a non-fiction account of demonic possession and exorcism in Massachusetts.

Virginia and Edwin Lively

Virginia and Edwin Lively have drawn from their combined years as educators to write Sexual Development of Young Children, published this spring by Delmar Publishers. Directed toward parents and teachers, the book explains children's misunderstandings and helps to build strong and open communication between children and adults.

Rob MacGregor

Mr. MacGregor wrote the novelization of the film Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade. He is working on Indiana Jones "prequels," four books that will relate adventures from the early life of the popular archeologist. Mr. MacGregor's mystery The Crystal Skull takes place, in part, on Miami Beach.

Trish MacGregor

See Trish Janeshutz.

The Rev. Nicholas Maestrini

The Rev. Maestrini is author of My Twenty Years with the Chinese: Laughter and Tears, 1931-1951, which chronicles his twenty years' missionary work in Hong Kong. He is founder of Catholic Life Magazine, the official publication of the Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions (PIME), which is now in its 30th year of publication. The Rev. Maestrini is currently Religious Superior of the PIME Rest and Rehabilitation house in Tequesta.

Lily O'Niel/Coleen Moore

Ms. O'Niel writes and illustrates her own nature books for children.

Paul Patti

Mr. Patti is a Lake Worth police officer. His book, Silhouettes, was published in 1990. He draws on his police experience in this novel about a husband and wife detective team who transfer from Miami to West Palm Beach.

Lucia St. Clair Robson

Ms. Robson's latest novel, Tokaido Road, is set in feudal Japan. Her three previous books, Light a Distant Fire, Walk in My Soul, and the best-seller Ride the Wind, were about Native Americans. Ms. Robson grew up in West Palm Beach and is a graduate of Palm Beach Community College and the University of South Florida.

Patrick D. Smith

Patrick D. Smith has written several novels with a Florida theme. Angel City, a novel about migrant workers, was produced as a major film. A Land Remembered follows three generations of the MacIvey family from the Florida wilderness of the 1800s to Miami of the 1960s. Forever Island and Allapattah explore the Everglades and its inhabitants, the Seminole Indians. Mr. Smith has been nominated three times for the Pulitzer Prize, and six times for the Nobel Prize for Literature.

Dorothy Solomon

Dorothy Solomon is a professional artist, illustrator, and writer of children's books. Her most recent book, Color Bright, is a gentle acknowledgement that people, as well as flowers and animals, are of different colors. Ms. Solomon has illustrated almost 50 children's books and her paintings have been exhibited in the Norton Museum with the Norton Artists' Guild.

June Swanson

Ms. Swanson's first book, The Spice of America, was named an American Library Association Notable Trade Book in the field of Social Studies in 1983. FOLK MUSIC RENAISSANCE, 1991

Saturday, April 20

Julianne Blount

Rustron Musical Productions, in affiliation with S.E.F.F.R.A. (The South-east Florida Folk Renaissance Alliance) and the Palm Beach County Folk Club, presents Folk Music Renaissance, 1991. Seven performers of folk music and New Age fusion will appear on the outside stage from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Jim Shettleroe is a contemporary folksinger and songwriter. A devotee of Irish, Scottish, and Welsh folk music, Jim mixes traditional ballads and storysongs with original songs and popular contemporary folksongs of the last four decades.

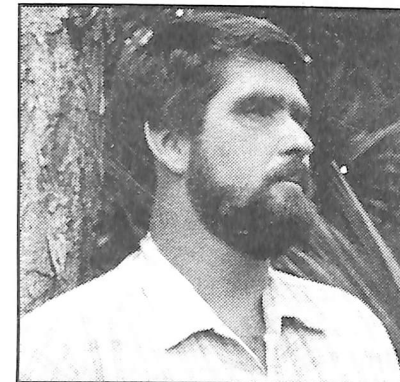

Julianne Blount performs contemporary folk music and New Age fusion. She creates a musical merger of the folk music of the 60s and the mysticism and spirituality of the 90s. The timbre and texture of Julianne's voice transports the listener to another time and place. She is an Earth Mother, a keeper of the Spirit, and a Sister of the Soul through music and love.

Robin Plitt has won several awards at Statewide Folk Festivals for his unique vocal quality and original songs of historical significance to the State of Florida. A resident of Lantana, he is a Minstrel of Florida Folksong and founder of the Folk Nite Coffee House located at the Garden of Eatin' Cafe in Lake Worth. Robin performs traditional folk ballads, contemporary and topical music, and has recorded on Florida Daze Records.

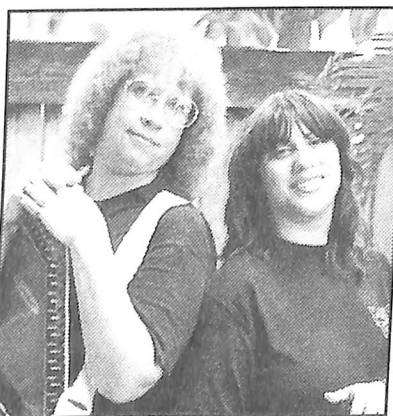

Circle and Star: Bonnie Pedicord and Jayne Reby are singers and songwriters from Miami who perform new music of the 90s and the 21st Century. Circle & Star's music speaks to us of healing, wholeness, happiness, and love. Bonnie and Jayne sing about possibilities and visions.

Marianne Flemming is a singer and songwriter who performs Folk Blues, R & B, and City Blues. Her original songs speak freely of the experience of young adults in our society. Marianne combines a fresh earthiness and free spirit for the future. She records for Mermaid Records.

Stephanie Shore combines an unusual blend of cabaret, pop, blues, jazz, and contemporary folk/rock, all wrapped up into a unique combination of youth and wisdom, innocence and savvy. Stephanie has performed in musical theater, choral groups, coffee houses, concerts, and is presently the Cantor of Temple B'nai Israel of Boca Raton. She is from Miami and records for Soul Inspiration Records.

Ray Bradbury

Jacqueline Anne Siegel

Kermit Christman

The Palm Beach Shakespeare Festival, founded and directed by Kermit Christman and Jacqueline Anne Siegel, is a not-for-profit arts and education theatrical organization. The 1990 premiere season opened with MACBETH at the Watson B. Duncan Theatre of Palm Beach Community College. Later that season, the Shakespeare Festival presented the first annual, first-of-its-kind, SHAKESPEARE BY THE SEA, a festival and play-in-the-park. SHAKESPEARE BY THE SEA was a critical success and returned in March, 1991, with THE TEMPEST. On June 1 and 2 the Shakespeare Festival will present KIDS FEST, a celebration of children and the arts at Carlin Park in Jupiter.

Palm Springs Library

The Palm Beach County Library Association is a professional organization of librarians, paraprofessionals, institutions, Friends, groups, trustees, and volunteers who are involved with and interested in quality library service. PBCLA promotes professional growth by offering programs, seminars, and classes designed to enhance library skills; supports innovative library services and research throughout the county; encourages cooperation among libraries; and develops good public relations by informing the public of library matters that concern them. PBCLA publishes a quarterly newsletter. Membership is open to any person or institution interested in library service.

Bonfire of the Liberties

The exhibit Bonfire of the Liberties: Censorship of the Humanities is presented by the Florida Center for the Book. Designed and produced by the Texas Humanities Resource Center, the display consists of 18 panels of framed photographs, drawings, and texts that illuminate the complex issue of censorship.

A typical panel entitled "Restrictions in Wonderland" is illustrated by the books Alice in Wonderland, Cinderella, A Wrinkle in Time, The Wizard of Oz, In the Night Kitchen, and a Judy Blume book. All of these titles have been censored in schools and libraries. A sample of the exhibit text from Plato's The Republic, presents the censor's view: "Mothers and nurses should only tell their children stories, legends, and fables which have been approved."
